There are two buildings on the 1/2 acre property that is fully fenced. The main house and a second building that's 20x45. The Second building was probably used as a shop at one time. Both buildings need significant repairs and the seller makes no warranties and will not make any repairs to the property. Buyer needs to do their due diligence to fully investigating the property, the buildings and what requirements would need to be made to this subject property. Property sold "As Is"
