This elegant waterfront home is a reproduction of the Red Lion Inn on Duke of Gloucester Street in Williamsburg. It is from the William E. Poole Williamsburg collection of antique homes. Exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail ensures the look and feel of a historic home, but with less maintenance and all the modern amenities you would expect from a home of this caliber. From the moment you enter the grand foyer, you'll notice the handcrafted front door, 10' ceilings, reclaimed heart pine floors and custom millwork. Other colonial features include hand forged Suffolk locks and rim locks, 3 wood burning fireplaces with floor to ceiling custom paneling. Modern conveniences include a gourmet kitchen, elegant bathrooms, Energy Star Rating construction, 50 year roof, tank-less water heater and more. This home is situated on Jones Creek and offers beautiful sunrises and unobstructed views of nature. The water depth is 4 foot at high tide. Pier includes floating dock & jet ski lift. Please see attached documents for additional home information and features.
