About the North Shore of Oahu

The North Shore of Oahu is made up of several smaller communities, and boasts a population of approximately 46,145. The North Shore offers various housing options such as vacant lots, single family residences, town homes and condominium complexes, agricultural and livestock lots. Entertainment, shopping, restaurants, and Health Care facilities are with in close proximity. The North Shore is accessible by mass transit, and the H-3 Freeway. The winter season brings waves, and tourists to the North Shore, and its pristine beaches along the coast line, sometimes referred to as the 7-mile miracle. Many of the beaches have been featured in motion pictures and television series. At the very tip of the North Shore is the small municipal, Dillingham Airfield. Enjoy rural living with immediate access to some of the world's greatest surfing beaches when you live on the North Shore of Oahu.
